

I believe that the monopolization of the media is insane, and the fact that the FCC allowed Clear Channel and Infinity Broadcasting to begin these "pac-man business" practices in the first place is disappointing, and really makes me lose faith in the system.